

I am Mayank Tomar, currently in my last semester of the Blockchain Development course at George Brown College looking for Co-Op opportunities. I have 6+ years of varied IT experience ranging from being a Techno-functional PeopleSoft consultant and a Salesforce developer. I have been involved with various teams dealing with solving recurring issues, designing, and developing solutions across various applications. My educational background consists of a Bachelor of Engineering in Information Technology and a postgraduate certificate in Blockchain Development.